Taking out a funeral plan is not only one of the most thoughtful and caring things you can do, it provides financial benefits too.

Make financial provision today

Funeral costs continue to rise and future increases are predicted, so it makes sense to make financial provision for your funeral in advance.

Many people wish to provide for their funeral expenses, and a pre-paid funeral plan through us is a caring, sensible and cost-effective way to do so.

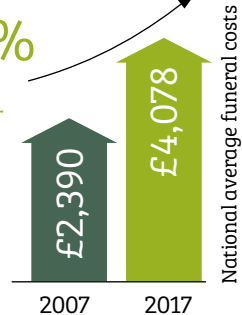

If you've ever had to arrange a funeral for someone, you'll know just how many decisions need to be made. With a pre-paid plan your wishes are clearly recorded, which removes uncertainty for your family.

It also means your family have access to professional advice and assistance at what can be a difficult and emotional time.

DIRECT FUNERAL SERVICES

At Respect Direct Funeral Services, we believe in the importance of involving nature when arranging funerals and are proud to offer both cremation and green burial funeral plans.

Our Green Burial Parks offer a natural resting place with no headstones or monuments, but there are trees, inscribed solid oak bird boxes, owl boxes, benches and plaques. Over the years we have seen the flora and fauna flourish in the parks. The birds are nesting and their numbers soaring. The wild meadow flowers increase year-on-year, assisted by our family community who plant the wild flowers in memory of their loved ones.

Many families we care for have pre-booked their final resting places within one of our parks and have pre-arranged their funeral with us. We offer complete funeral services for families and, to ensure your peace of mind, we can put all the arrangements into a pre-paid funeral plan.

Respect Direct Funeral Services are independently recommended by and proud winners of:

- The Best Green Funeral Director of the year 2014
